

TO RESIDENTS OF COTTONBORO AND THOSE INTERESTED IN COTTONBORO HISTORY

Attached is a map of Cottenbore and a coded list of its houses, church, and shops, past and present with the names of occupants and the dates of their occupancy.

This information was assembled from many sources in preparation for a talk on the history of Cottenbore given before the Wolfebore Historical Society on September 7, 1981, in the Cotton Mountain Community Church.

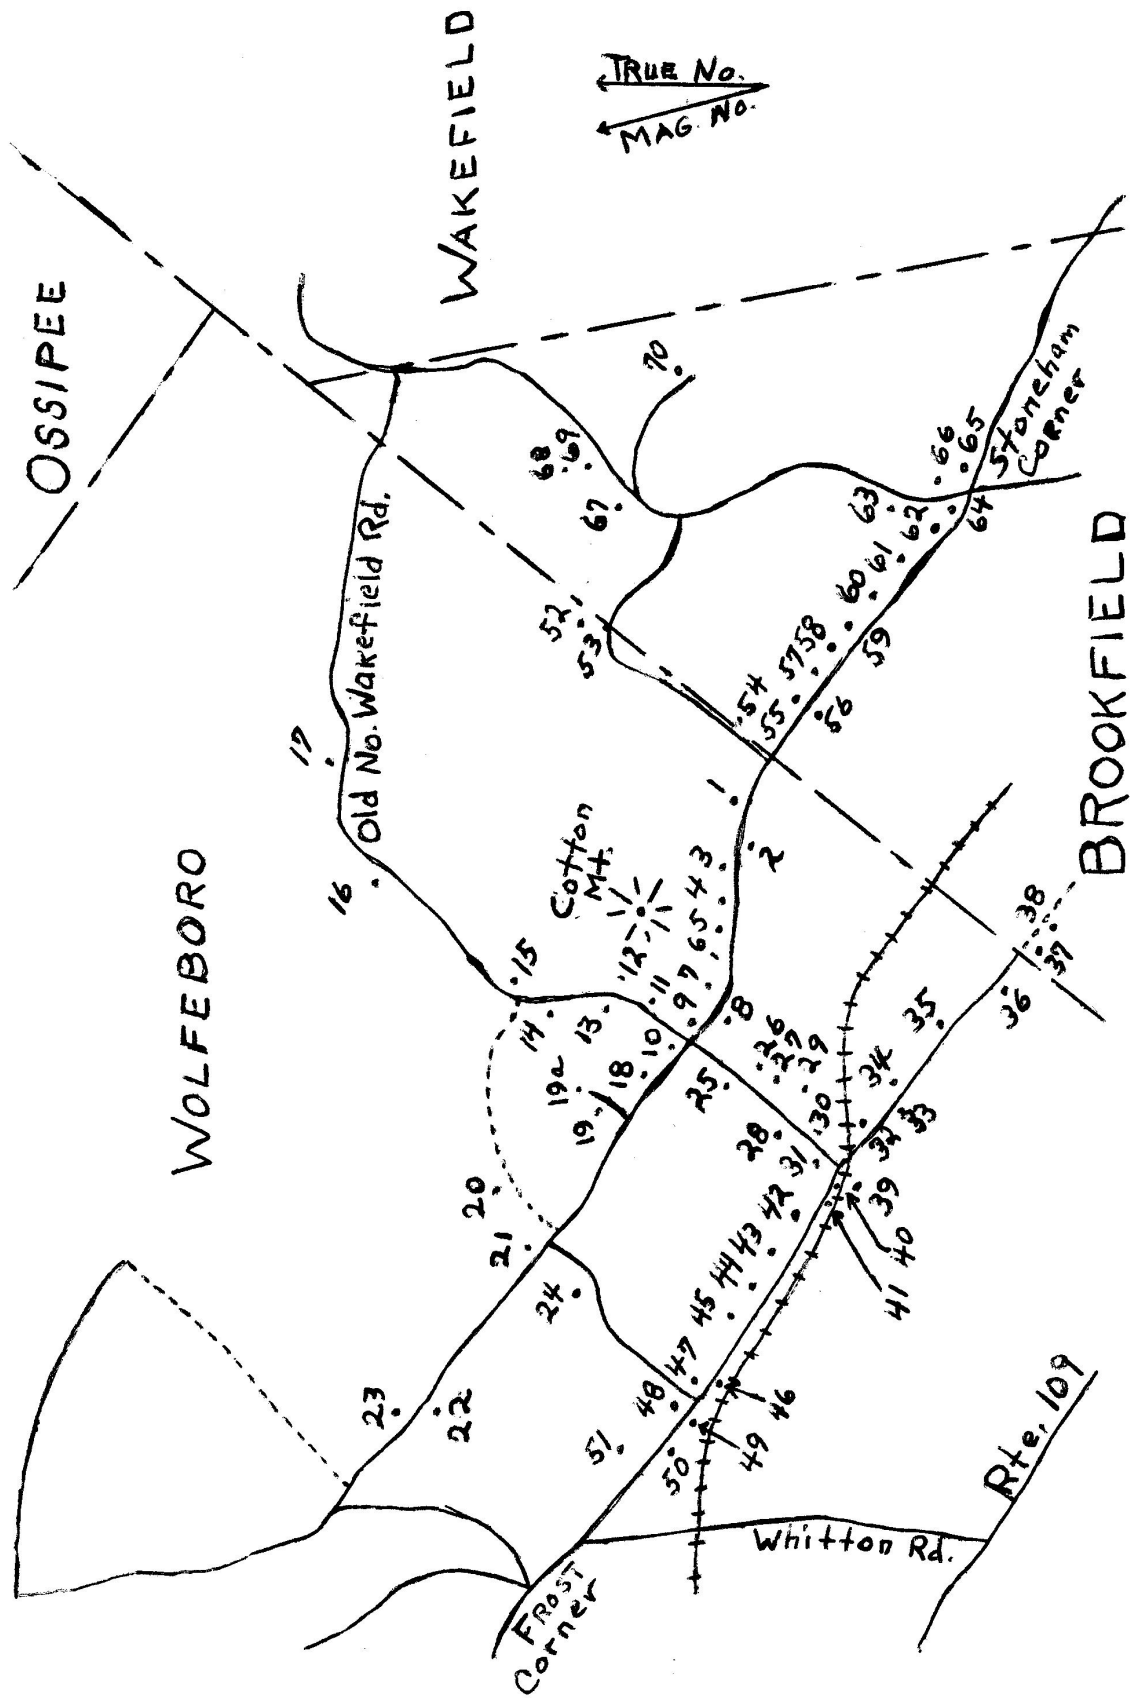

There are, inevitably, many gaps in the data and no doubt a number of errors. However, it is quite possible that some of you may have knowledge of, or access to information that would serve to fill in some of the missing parts and correct the errors.

Therefore, it would be greatly appreciated if you would look over the attached sheets and let me know of any changes, additions, or deletions you consider appropriate. If possible, reference to documentary sources would be helpful.

It is planned to prepare a revised version of the list based on your contributions. When the revised list is completed a copy will go to you if you want it.
